Livin' In Your Mind

By ASH FOXX

I've captured your mind, I'm stuck in your head.
On my way to your heart, can you feel what I said?
As you think about it baby, some things ain't fair.
I'm forever with you even when I'm not there.

CHORUS

I can touch you without even laying a hand on you baby.
I can get your heart beating without even being around.
I can take you to heaven while you're living in hell,
You can dream about me baby, I swear I'll never tell,
because I really don't mind... 'Livin In Your Mind..."

How does it feel to have me deep down inside?
What's it like baby every time you fantasize?
It ain't necessary to blame someone else, oh no,
when you think about it baby, you did it to yourself... (You let me...)

CHORUS

Touch you without even laying a hand on you baby.
And I got your heart beating without even being around.
Let me take you to heaven, just forget about hell,
You and me baby, I swear I'll never ever tell,
because I really don't mind... 'Livin In Your Mind..."
