LET IT GO

By ASH FOXX

The time has come now baby to ease on down the line.
There's so many things that I want to tell you darlin', but I just ain't got the time.

CHORUS

Let it go, oh let it go.

You can cry if you want to, beg me not to go.
Don't waste your time tryin' to say "I love you baby", 'cause I really don't want to know... (CHORUS)
